

Twist in the tale

Event description

Let's remember those myriad of instances where with your gang of friends, you sat together to mimic some of the hottest movie dialogues in their trademark styles; continuing them with more, that always produced a series of guffaws that lasted longer than it takes to actually make maggi! Who didn't use 'et tu, Brute?' in multiple sentences and made it sound so apt each time! And oh yes! Who could forget the over hundred versions of 'ek chutki sindoor'!

Rulebook

For all those who enjoy twisting the tales to make them the funniest and the most splendid of all, CETADEL brings you "Twist in the Tale-2K15" this PERCEPTION(21st to 23rd February)! Get familiar with the format and rules below.

1)The event can have individual participants or teams of two.

2)There will be two rounds:

PRELIMS: Participants will be given some abstract words(say, 'truth') and they have to choose one and write a story with the word as the main character(like, 'once upon a time, there was a small meek child called Truth.'). The story will have to be within 200-500 words and only 40 minutes will be given to think and write the story. Participants will be judged based on their idea, title of the story and the style of writing. [Results will be announced on the event page on the same day]

FINALS: The selected teams or participants will then be given 5 INCOMPLETE fake news headlines/movie dialogues/paragraphs from famous short stories etc and they have to choose one from among them and complete them in the most creative way. 1 hour will be given to write it using 400-700 words. Judging criteria will include the creativity of the participants as well as the style of writing. The results will be announced on the same day.

3) there will also be another pre-event round online which will be used to award 2 winners with direct entry into the final round. They may team up with each other, bring other partners with them or participate alone. The online rounds will be held on 18th and 19th of February from 8pm to 9pm each day. An incomplete movie dialogue/song/story/fake news headlines will be given for participants to complete it in the most creative way. The winners will be decided based on the LIKES they fetch within 8pm to 9pm and event coordinators' appreciation. The two winners will be declared each day within 9.30pm.
